

Land Management Issue Related to Recovery From east Japan Great Earthquake

Masaru Kaidzu (Japan)

Key words: Cadastre; Land management;

SUMMARY

To promote quick recovery from damage by East Japan Great Earthquake, Japanese government continuously invest budget and implement necessary measures. East Japan is an area where cadastral survey has been intensively conducted compared to other area. Land administration related effort and role of Cadastral record in recovery in the area will be shown.